

What do the lessons of the past years mean for the next 10 years?

Hosted by

Supported by

Date: 20 September 2022

Time: 10:05-11:20 SAST

About
EVIDENCE 2022

EVIDENCE 2022: Coming together to enhance mutual learning and innovation in evidence-informed decision-making.

19-21 September 2022

About EVIDENCE 2022

- Celebrate ten years since the establishment of the Africa Evidence Network!
- Provide an opportunity for collaboration to enhance mutual learning and the development of new ideas about supporting evidence-informed decision-making;
- Fully virtual experiences that facilitate real-time and offline collaboration with participants from around the world!

Moderator

Josephine Watera, Assistant Director,
Department of Research Services,
Parliament of Uganda

About the webinar today

- The moderator will kick off the session with a brief overview of the objectives of the webinar series, the specific objectives for this session and a quick run-through of how the session will run.
- The objective of this webinar is to reflect on the lessons learnt over the last 10 years and map out what the EIDM future looks like.
- Introduction of panellists and setting the scene with initial comments.
- A panel discussion, with the moderator posing questions and facilitating a discussion initially amongst panellists, and then with the audience as well.
- Closing: Chair-Ms Siziwe Ngcwabe

About the webinar today

- The primary objective of this webinar is to reflect on the lessons learnt over the last 10 years and map out what the EIDM future looks like.
- The secondary aim is to assess the implications of these lessons on the current evidence ecosystem in Africa.
- The tertiary objective is for these discussions to be the basis for improving the evidence ecosystem and evidence use in Africa.
- The webinar series comprises four sessions, each of which runs for 1 hour and 15 minutes. The series was launched during Africa Evidence Week 2021 and is culminating in the Evidence 2022 event from 19-21 September 2022.
- The other webinars will link past experiences and lessons learnt to future practice in EIDM, the current EIDM trends in the African EIDM ecosystem and their implications for the future, including mutual learning and innovation in EIDM.

Panellists

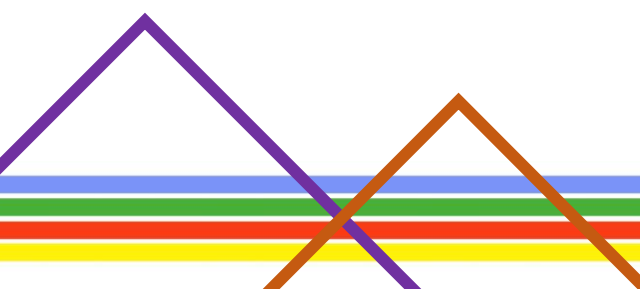

Eric Ngang, coordinator, Action Group on Governance and Environmental Management (AGGEM)

Ronald Munatsi, Principal Research Associate, Zimbabwe Evidence Informed Policy Network (ZeipNET)

Mapula Tshangela, Director, Department of Forestry, Fisheries & the Environment (DFFE)

Closing the session

The recording for the webinar and a blog on it will be published to ensure we continue engagements asynchronous on capacity development for evidence use - via LinkedIn and EVIDENCE 2022 platform

Follow the AEN on LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/company/africa-evidence-network/>

JOIN US FOR THE NEXT WEBINARS

Title	Date	Time (SAST)
Looking back on the EIDM evidence ecosystem over the past ten years	19 September 2022	09:15-10:30
Mutual learning and innovation in evidence-informed decision-making	19 September 2022	14:10-15:25
What do the lessons of the past years mean for the next 10 years?	20 September 2022	10:05-11:20
What are the current trends for the African EIDM ecosystem and AEN for the next ten years?	20 September 2022	14:40-15:55

Thank you!

Questions?

Africa Evidence Network at the Africa Centre for Evidence

www.africacentreforevidence.org
www.africaevidencenetwork.org

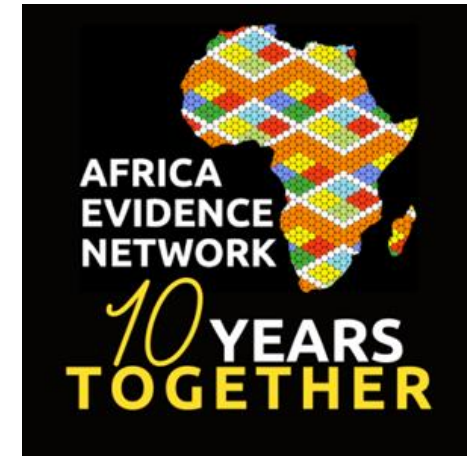

@Africa_Evidence
@ACE_UJ

This work is licensed under CC BY-SA 2.5 ZA. Full license details here: <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-sa/2.5/za/>

Hosted by

Supported by

